

Article by Francesca Klug	Michael Pinto-Duschinsky on TV	“Human Rights are imposed by the European Union”	Winston Churchill invoked	“Parliamentary sovereignty”
Opinion polls invoked to show most of the public love/hate human rights	Shami Chakrabarti on the BBC	“Prisoner votes”	Nick Herbert MP on TV	“Human rights gone wrong”
“Unelected judges”	“Criminals’ / vagabonds’ / terrorists’ Charter”	BILL OF RIGHTS COMMISSION BINGO!	John Hirst on TV	Prime Minister and Deputy Prime Minister disagreeing
Mixing up Abu Qatada with Abu Hamza (or vice versa)	Dominic Raab MP on TV	Lord Hoffmann invoked on the European Court	Confusing the ECtHR and ECJ	Chris Grayling MP getting the law a bit wrong
Prime Minister feeling sick/uneasy	“Immigrants coming over and taking our rights”	“Catgate”	“Coalition split”	“Commission was doomed from the start”

How to play: The Commission on a Bill of Rights report is bound to generate lots of coverage in the media. When you have spotted a row of five of the above, shout “BILL OF RIGHTS BINGO!” and contact the UK Human Rights Blog via the contact tab telling us where and when you saw each one. The first to get a row of five will win a UKHRB PRIZE!